PROJECT INTRODUCTION

OCOC, One Child One Change

We believe that every child has the potential to change the world!

OCOC CAMP is hosted by AIESEC in NTPU. The purpose is to give the high school students a chance to understand many aspects of issues and difficulties in Hualien through the guidance of the foreign students and the college students in Taiwan. Meanwhile, during the day on campus, we hope to create a space that indigenous children can network with international participants and high schools students, and eventually, both can gain some insights by the event.

TIMELINE

December 2021~
January 2022

Routine Meeting (about 4 times)

Feb, 9, 2022

Preparation day in Hualien

Rundown X Final Check

Feb, 10~13 2022

Camp in Hualien

DELEGATE PROFILE

We expect to invite the foreign students and college students who are interested in the UN SDGs, Taiwan's local issues, project planning, to be the team leader. Team leader will be serving as a leader of a group consisting of 6 high school students.

Opportunities:

- Interact with the local residents and get closer to Taiwanese culture
- Network with Taiwanese teens
- Experience indigenous culture by engaging with children in remote primary school.

What we want to address?

Every youth has potential to empower others!

Work with teams
to tackle local issues covered under UN SDGs in Hualien

Learn to design a session that can influence and empower others

Cultivate teens' communication
and problem solving skills by cross-cultural teamwork

JOB DESCRIPTION

Routine meetings

During the preparation (around December to January), the OC team will keep in touch with all team leaders, to ensure that team learders are working on their assigned project.

Education

During the camp, team leaders need to guide the high school students to think about an issue and design a project for a specific issue.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Session Design

During the preparation day, team leaders have to stay in Hualien with the OC team to plan a session to show your countries and do the dryrun.

Record

We expect that team leaders could build relationships with their teams, and keep themselves updated with their members' conditions. Also, don't forget to take some photos to keep the memory!
